The U.S. stoamer Susquehannah arrived at Now York on the evening of Thursday. The crow have suffered greatly from the ravages of yellow lever. There had been 18 deaths unong the officers and erew, and upwards of 60 patients had been left at the hospitals in Kingston.

The report from Washington is that Mr. Esq. Lien, one of the Conference Committee, who was thought to have described to the Slavery side, will stand firm; and that a line! disagreement is deconod nearly certain. Major McKee, U. S. Army, has been ordered to Cincinnati, to muster into service, at that point, two of the new Volunteer Regiments. It is not announced from what States they will be The St. Louis Democrat of the 15th instant

The funeral of Col. BENTON took place at St. Louis yesterday. Honors were also paid to his memory in this city. The New York market of yesterday showed but little change. There was an improved demand for Flour, but Wheat was lower. Stocks, two, were down, though money continues very abundant and easy. Our own market, with increased receipts, was rather duller, though prices were about the same. Good Garr .- The Detroit Advertiser, having been ied by an error of the telegraphic reporter to suppose that the Hon. Wer. A. Howard, M. C. from that district, had paired off with a Lo-House of Representatives on the 1st lest. Mr. Howard makes the following statement:

LOOK OUT YOU THE FLOOD .- The most frightful consequences are likely to ease along the low-er Mississippi, from the combined floods that are or ansassippi, from the contouned about time are consing from the upper rivers. The lower Mississippi is already at the d hight, and the town of Napoleon, Arkaness, is submerged. An asconding steamer report: that people were fortied from the hotel in that place, and came on board is hotely as the statement of t in haste, tolescane the destruction threatened or in base, to escape the destruction threatened on every side by the augry flood. Various other towns, and a large numer of plantations are partly under water. Not only are Red and Arkaissa rivers at flood hight, but we have intelligence to the effect that this river is rising from St. Paul, that a rise of great extent is coming from the Hinois, and that the Missouri is swelling rankly.

The inhabitants of the country south of us along the banks of the Mississippi, will do well to adopt, without delay, mensures of precaution against the outereachments of the fast accumulating waters.—St. Louis Democrat, April 14.

DEATH OF WM. BEER, JR -- Wm. Beer, Jr., of DEATH OF WM. Bare, JR.—Wm. Beer, Jr., of this village, one of the best phots upon the river, was drowned at binds Bull Falls hat Thereday, just after sunset. He was pilotic immore through the Falls, and was enjuged upor his last place for the day. The talk had entered the jaws and was going all right. He had taken the last clip with the ear, and had ordered the men away from it, and was holding on and looking round to the steersman, when the ear, striking the eddy, throw him everboard. The raft passed over him and when he came up he was about eight rods astern. He then gram soveral rods cight rods astern. He thou swam several rods down the stream, towards the breakers. When last seen be had turned upon his back, thrown up his hands, and probably given up all as lost.

He had followed the river several years, and was well known to river-men all the way between here and St. Louis, and his death has occasioned miversal sorrow.

He was engaged in taking out a fleet of lumber for Mesers. Souter, McIodoo & Taylor. He had probably cun the falls safely a thousand times, and was considered in no way reckless or care-less. He leaves a wife and three children to bemoan his loss. At latest accounts the body had not been found .- Wausan Central Wisco

MILWAUKER FRMALE COLLEGE .-- The next term of this College commences on Monday. In speaking of this excellent Institution the News very truly says : A number of reasons have existed for the past year, which have prevented us large attendance as filled the college is other seasons; among these the pressure of the times, the supposed high orice of tuition, the opening of the Seventh Ward School may be mentioned as having, to a greater or less extent, drawn away pupils from the Col oge cineses.

15 was hoped, when our citizens so liberally subscribed towards the establishment of this In subscribed towards the establishment of this institution, that there would be an endowment secured by the friends, and projectors of the enterprize in the east, and with what could be secured here from tuition, we would have a school of the very highest order, equal to any in the land, and which would reader it unnecessary to send our daughters to the boarding schools of the east, in order to secure a good and finished education. These hopes have not been realized, so far as the endowment is concerned, but the tenchers employed by the Board of Trustees have been able, and efficient, and the character of the graduates.

ployed by the Board of Trustees have been able, and efficient, and the character of the graduates, as to schol-rahlp, and mental attainments, as well as the high standing of the classes now attending, as evinced in the examination last week, must convince all, that, so far as the establishment of a first class school in our city was sought the effort has been eminently successful.

There are differences of opinion, as to the plan upon which this is conducted, it was found off on the principal that there ought to be a college for girls as well as for boys, and that there was no good reason why ladies should not be vosted with all the powers of college professore. The experiment has not had a full and fair tital as yet, nor a trial upon equal terms, but there can be no doubt that the young ladies who communed and pursued the course, which the facet

REMOVING AND BUILDING,-The prospects now REMOVING AND BUILDING.—The prospects will are that quite a number of new buildings will be crected in this city the coming summer. The Movey is put up. MARINE MATTERS.—There was a fine breeze yesterday for vessels going North, South or East and several craft took their departure for the lower Lakes, from this port. Among the ves sels that sailed from here, were the Barque Hans Crocker, Capt. Fitzgerald, for Buffalo, with a cargo of flour, the schooner W. H. Dewitt, with wheat and flour for Ogdensburgh, and the Sam Hale, Capt. Ford, with flour for Collingwood .-The schooner Mary Morton also cleared with a cargo of wheat for Port Hope, Canada. The stenmer Arctic, which broke her shafts on Tuesday, left here, yesterday, in sow of the Cleveland for Chicago, to undergo repairs.

The schooner Harrison, which run on the beach, near the entrance of our harbor during the late gale, was got off yesterday by the tug Salvor, which was on her way to Green Bay to get off the bark Sonora.

The Harrison was got off uninjured. The Salver was also at work on the Planet in

They read in this Lucompoverspread the whole heavens, signs of a storm that will bring destruction upon the " Nutlena Democratic" party. This difference of opinion, however, radical though it scome, is easily explained. The News views matters from an "official," stand-point. It sees everything through Post Office spectacles which give the orthodox hue to all objects. But these who do not enjoy these unusual facilities for perfect vision, are by no means so sanguine as the News that the "Democracy" are a unit, the Administration as strong as ever, and Mr. Buchanan a second JACKSON. Among these doubters its that large class of meritorious public servants who, "Democrate" though they were, have been mercilessly decapitated by Mr. Buchanan for non-conformity to the Lecompton test. They feel in their bones that all is not harmony -as they understand itin the democratic racks. Else why, they ask, does Mr. Buchanan so ruthlessly persecute those who fought and bled in his behalf and whose survices and sacrifies he himself acknowledged and the hand organ of the Administration, which is supposed to gried out none but orthodex demo-

Should the "loan of State credit to Ru Roads," as we confidently anticipate, be passed upon favorably by the people, all the Land ton question, which from a small cloud has now Grant Roads in the State must commence construction within the next ninety days. Should this anticipation be reslized, we look for a general revival of business, and a general resumption of emigration to Minnesota, which was turned away from us last year, by the withdrawal of our lands from market. That emigration will, much of it, doubtless, be of that well-to-do class of castern men, who wish to locate upon the lines of great thoroughfares, purchasing partially improved lands, or who wish, in the rising young towns of the great West, to engage in Mercantile and Manufacturing pursuits, and the prosecution of the Mechanic Arts. It is especially for the information of this class of persons as well as those who wish to "centend with na ture"in her more rugged aspects upon the publie lands, that this letter is written.

The Root River Valley Rail Road, one of the Land Grant roads, which commences at La Crescent, opposite La Orosse in your State, passes up the valley of Root river, through the heart of Houston County, across Filmore County to rowarded? Or why does the Washington Union, Rochester, in the county of Olmstond, where it intersects the Transit road, thence west to Mankato, Blue Earth County, where an interscetion is formed with the Southern Minuesota Road from St. Anthony to a point at or near Sioux City in Iowa. These several roads traverse one of the finest regions of country in the West, covering un area as large as three or four such States as Massachusetts, which is as yet, but partially reclaimed from nature, by the hand of the hardy Ploncor.

Until within the last three years, there were but very few settlers in this part of the Territory; Emigration having been drawn by extrancous influences into a colder region, and into less projuctive soil, farther north-and hence this ' Garden of Minnesota" has remained until quite ecently, almost a solitude. The best locations ato now to be found in the Southern tier of Jounties, bordering upon Iown. There is here pause at Cauten; if refractory or unfriendly, then we must not wonder if we see the war pushed by so abundance of timber, (the bottom lands in this alley, are densely timbered,) and unfailing supby of pure spring water ; speckled trout abound in all our streams. Property ranges ower here than in any other town of its prospoets (in fact there is no other of as good prospoets) in the Valley. Choice business locations can be had for one hundred and fifty dollars, and lots range from that down to twenty-five dollars. The liberal policy of the town proprietors being to give every man a chance to become interested in the growth and prosperity of the place.

There are no lands in this county subject to outry or pro-emption, and I think very little in Filimore or Olmstead. Second hand farms, however, unimproved, can be had in this vicinity for from three to five dollars per acre. Improved farms range from ten to twenty-price depending chiefly upon location.

A SLANDER REFURED .- The following letter from Mr. H. A. TENNY, of Madison, denying a charge which has been freely circulated against him, appears in the Madison Argus of Thursday

pretended to have been rendered during the ses-sion of 1857. An oath of secrecy has necessar-rily provented me, for some months past, from noticing any attacks of that kind, and the obli-gations of that oath have not yet been removed; but I may say this much, at this time, that this charge, or implication of Matthew Roche, as published, is an impudent falsehood.

Very truly yours,

MELANGHOLY ACCIDENT IN BROWNSYLLE, IND.

—Two Boys Drawnen,—We are indebted to a friend for the particulars of a sad affair which occurred at Brownsylle, Ind., on Sunday, which are, in brief, as follows:—The recent ratios had swollen the east fork of White River, to such an extont as entirely to fill its banks, making the current rapid and deep. On Sunday, an interesting son of Mahlon Bradrick, aged about eight years, with his play-lellow, Augusts A., son of of Joseph Doughty, of this city, fresiding with his uncle at Brownsville, went to the river for the purpose of watering a horse, both boys being seated upon the animal.

Just Like Hix .- The Constitution of our State limits the salary of the Governor to $1, 250. It has long been felt that this was a mere pittance, and not sufficient to defray even the ordinary expenses of the Executive. Yet it could not be increased without an amendment to the Constitution, sauctioned by the popular vote. Under these circumstances a bill was introduced in the Senate and passed by that body, a short time since, hopesing upon the Governor the additional duty of visiting all the State Institutions and Public Works and paying him therefor the sum of $2,000. The bill came up for its final reading in the Assembly, a few days made for him. Two several dispatches have been sent to Sheriff Everts, by the Chief of Pobut each time, upon sending a person to identify

It is highly improbable that the parties who received the barrel, or the a no "No 195" on Leonard Street, New York, nor could any person of the name of Jennings, be found on that street. There is one other circumstance which may and may not point to an individual who possibly had some connection with this dark strangetion, but which in any event only tends to involve it in deeper mystery. About a year ago a young lady who was teacher of in Dearborn Seminary left the city to return to her friends at the east. Her struk, containing clothing, etc.; to the value of $600, was taken to the Michigan Central Bailroad depot and left in the mental place. When the train was about ready to start the truic could not be found. Search to the Michigan Central Regional Regional Binding are not surpassed by any Publishing and Binding are not surpassed by any Publishing Region was made for it in every place where it was thought possible for it to be, which proved una-vailing. The owner proceeded on her joirney without it. The search was continued until the whole city had been ransacked; but the trunk was not found, and the company paid to the loser lits value. Some mostly afterward, a trunk was left one day by some person unknown at Messis. Statterion & Cook's store, on the corcovery and they proceeded to open the trunk.— It was empty, except that a memorandum book was found within, the entries in which proved conclusively that this was the identical lest trunk. Steps to discover the person who had stelen it were then taken. It was found from the railroad books that the trunk had been sent o this city from La Salle. Detectives proceedto this city from La Salles. Detectives proceeded this city, and every effort was made to discover the person who sent it; but without success. Nothing could be discovered, and the parties were about giving up, the search, when one of them who was acquainted with the young lady ecidentally discovered a woman with one of her silk drozee on, standing in a door way. Exum-ination was forthwith instituted, and the name of the young lady who owned the trunk was found on the dress, leaving no doubt that: it was hors, further investigation revealed nothing except the fact that the dress had been purchased at a commercial sale, and that other articles which o doubt also came out of the trunk, were pawned

True Speech of Logan, the Indian Chief.

A correspondent of the New York Evening Post forwards that paper the following version of the speech of Logan, the colobrated Mingo Chief, which is generally found in an abriged and medfied form. The letter prefixed bears testimony o its genuineness: General John S. Eustace, with whom I was ininately acquainted for some time provious to its death, and who formerly held a Major Gener-its councission in the French ampies, gave me the following as a gammine copy of the colcorated spacet of Logan, the Mingo Cutef. He (General Euglace) informed me that he was on terms of istimacy with Lord Dunmoro, in Virginia, and frequently an immate of his house, and the speech, as I now send it to you, was presented to him personally by Lord Dunmore. I do not consider anysoif an accurate judge of Indian cloquence, yet it appears to me, that the speech as published by Mr. Jefferson is not worthy of those high accountage which he heartway speech. high econiums which he bestows upon it.

Not long atterwards, some of your men invited our tribo to cross the river and bring their vonison with them; they, unsuspicious of design, came as they had been invited; the white men then made them drunk, killed them, and turned their knives even against the women.—Was not my sistor among them? Was she not sauped by the hands of the man whom she had taught how to escape his enemies, when they were according out his track? What could I resolve upon? My blood now boiled thrice better than before, and thrice sgnin my heart leaped up to my mouth; no longer did I bid my tomahawk to be quiet, and lie at rest for that war, because I no longer thought the great men of your country sent them to do it. I sprang from my cabin to aveng their blood, which I have fully done this war, by shedding yours from your coldest to your hottest sun; thus revenged, I am now at peace, and have advised most of my constryinen to be so too—may! what is more, I have officed and still offer myself a victim, being ready to dis if their good require it.

Twelve Chiefs and three Braves, belonging to various bands of the Pawnes in Galling to the Churge of Major W. Dennison, the Government Agent of the Pawnes, and accompanied by Mr. Samuel Cills, of Lowa as interpreter.

The Indians are from the region of the Big Platte River, and have been to the seat of Government ago with the later. for the purpose of ratilying a treaty made some menths ago with their tribe, be which they ceded to the United States a tract of land of about twolve million norse, reserving about twenty-tour thousand acres for themselves.

By the terms of the treaty, they bind them-selves to support the government, and are to resoive $40,000 per year, which amounts to about coive $40,000 per year, which amounts to about ton dollars for each man, woman and child in the nation. Fentanushare, the grand head chief of the tribe, accompanies the delegation, the others being choits of the various bands. One of them is reuned Luiennesharecessa, or "the man that kills the teneny in the water," who is a brave of the band known as Tappahs. He was one of the party who accompanied Gen Sumoer's expedition against the Shisns, and had with him inst evening three Shian scalps which he took with his own hand, and exhibits as trophics.

Another of the chiefs is named Lectanusahare, "a little chief," of a band known as Loups, who grieves much at the less of one of his braves who died in Washington on the 14th uit., and whose body was laterred in the Congression.

and whose body was interred in the Congression al burying ground. His inneral is said to have been very imposing, and was attended by severe The band have of course seen all the wonders of civilization for the first time, and at nothing have they expressed greater surprise, or more admiration than a relivend track, cars and engine. An incident connected with their first view of the track is related. The Chief had become much interested in a young daughter of Major Donnison, and had promised to give her's name, after they had paid a visit to their white triends at the East. When they arrived at Hannibal, shu took them to see the track, and as no engine happened to be fired up, one of the workman got as many of the chiefs upon a handcar as could be found room for, and gave them their first ride upon the rail. Of course they were greatly surprised and delighted, and expressed their admiration by prolonged hows. On discuberking from the car, they immediately held enterking from the car, they immediately held a council, and after much deliberation, they gave Miss Dennison the name of "Chataralias breech-es" which the interpreter explained signified "a

On their arrival last evening, the party were greatly tatigued, having rode through from New York since Monday morning. Immediately after supporting a cating which they attended a crowd male railroad. suppor—in cating which they attracted a crowd of spectators, who laughed heartily to see them pick their teeth with the silver forks—they spread their mattresses in a large room provided for their accommodation, and rolling themselves in their camp blankets, path no heed to the crowd by whom they were surrounded. One of them, before retiring, took special care to carefully stow away a military coat with bright buttens presented him by Mr. Osleman, of the Astor. House, New York. This morning the Chiefe and

Hong Kong, China, Jan. 28, 1358.

Affairs at Canton remain to statu quo, nothing of interest having transpired since the departure of the last until. The city still stands as of yore, is quietly occupied by the Allies, and ruled by its Tartar Governor. The complete success of the British arms in the Province of Kwang-transformers to the Province of Kwang-transformers to the province of the Science or the British man, the fittle resistance experi-tung, together with the little resistance experi-onced from the Chinese, coupled with their ser-vile submission to the authority of their conquer will lead to the withdrawal of the larger por ors, will can be aliced force from the city and from this part of China. The seat of war-moved to the Northern portion of the empire. Next the Northern portion of the emptor-except month, all of the force now at Canton-except about one thousand British and four hundred French troops, with some six vessels of war-will be withdrawn and will proceed early in the coming spring to the northward. All the available force at the disposal of Lord Fight will really the first of Fachel, preparatory to dezvous at the Gult of Pochele, proporatory to t

With a force of four hundred men, entronched as strongly as they will be, the allied commanders are confident that they can hold possession of Canton, and will, in case of amergency, be able to resist, encoesduly, ton times that number of Chinese. Every strong position within, and in the immediate vicinity of the city, is being strongthened and fortilled with an ego to the permanent occupation of the city. With the examples of Delhi, incknow and Cawnpore before their eyes, it is not at all likely that the British will be caught napping at Canton.

As an evidence of the security that is felt in the might of the conquerers, we see that the Chinese merchants—Howqua among the number—nave just put forth a circular stating therein their interion of roturning to the city after their New Years, and engaging in trade as of old. The blockade new in operation will then be re-their New Years, and engaging in trade is of old. The blockade now in operation will then be removed, and every encouragement given to trade. Governor Yoh is still held in durance vite on board H. The whole United States squadeon is now congregated in this harbor. Our Commissioner, Mr. Read, is here in the Minnesets, and quietly abiding his time. He is almost the observed of all observers, as being the representative in the eyes of the English of American policy in China. His every novement is watched with lynx-eyed curiosity by foreigners here, but I am most happy to say that, so far, be has shown himself a man of sense and discretion by keeping his own counsel. Englishmen are totally unable to see through the clouds of American diplomacy. Mr. Reed has taken a step in the right direction by through the clouds of American opporators. Ar-ificed has taken a step in the right direction by making a move toward putting a step to Ameri-can vessels ongoged in the netrious coolie trade. If he has notified an American vessel now loading at Macao with coolies, of his latenties to move the United States Government to put in longe the act of Concress of 1818 relating to this force the act of Congress of 1918, relating to this matter. That he will meet with the most virulent opposition from the delectable gentry who are engaged in this traffic is quite certain. We shall see it in this case right is might.

I onitted to tell you in the first part of this letter, that among the spoils secured at Cauton, was the original copy of the ratified Cashing treaty between the United States and China. It vas sent down to Mr. Reed, who now has
